

On December 7th, 2005 Extreme Makeover visited a needing family in Blacksburg. Green Valley Builders spent 3 long days on site mainly installing the exterior siding. Despite the terrible conditions it was a wonderful experience, not only to use our skills in a high paced situation but to also give something back to our community that has helped us so much over the years!

